DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of election of article claims 31-54 and specie I (figure 1) in the reply filed on 2/15/2007 is acknowledged. Claims 55-60 are withdrawn from further consideration. Claims 32-37, 46-48 and 50 are also withdrawn from further consideration because they read on non-elected specie II, figure 2 (multichip module). Claims 38-44 and 52 are also withdrawn from further consideration because they read on non-elected specie III, figure 3 (having a hollow housing package).

Oath/Declaration

2. The oath or declaration is defective. A new oath or declaration in compliance with 37 CFR 1.67(a) identifying this application by application number and filing date is required. See MPEP §§ 602.01 and 602.02.

The oath or declaration is defective because:

- a) In the declaration the date of U. S. National Stage should be September 19, 2005, instead of December 22, 2004.

Specification

3. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:

- a) On page 12, line 29, change "contact area 17" to -- contact area 14 --.

Note: These are few examples only. Applicant is required to check the entire disclosure and correct the disclosure accordingly.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 31, 45, 49 and 51 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Murakami (5,874,700, cited in IDS).

Murakami discloses, for claim 31, a housing package comprising a plurality of layers of plastic (see figures 2A and 2B); at least one buried interconnect layer (see figures 2A and 2B); and at least one semiconductor chip (105), which has pointed-conical external contacts (106, 107) distributed on an outer side, the pointed-conical external contacts penetrating through one of the layers of plastic in the housing package and forming contact vias to the buried interconnect layer (see figure 2B), for claim 45, a number of layers of plastic (see figures 2A and 2B); at least one buried interconnect layer (see figures 2A and 2B); one semiconductor chip (105) with pointed-conical external contacts distributed on an outer side (106, 107), and the pointed-conical external contacts in the panel penetrating through one of the layers of plastic and forming contact vias to the buried interconnect layer (see figure 2B), for claim 49, the panel has external contact areas (108) in each component position on the underside and/or the upper side, for claim 51, the panel has passive components on its upper side, the components being connected by means of contact vias in the uppermost layer of plastic to one of the buried interconnect layers.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claim 53 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Murakami in view of Bauer et al (6,455,442).

Murakami discloses all the limitations of claim 45, as shown above,

However, Murakami does not disclose:

- a) For claim 53, the panel has at least one layer of plastic of a pre-crosslinked plastic. Bauer et al discloses the panel has at least one layer of plastic of a pre-crosslinked plastic (see col. 2, lines 29-31), therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art, at the time of the invention for Murakami, the panel having at least one layer of plastic of a pre-crosslinked plastic in view of Bauer et al for sturdiness.

8. Claim 54 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Murakami in view of Rohloff (3,691,289).

Murakami discloses all the limitations of claim 45, as shown above,

However, Murakami does not disclose:

Art Unit: 2839

- a) For claim 54, the panel has at least one layer of plastic with glass fiber reinforcements. Rohloff discloses the panel has at least one layer of plastic with glass fiber reinforcements (see col. 4, lines 33-39), therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art, at the time of the invention for Murakami, the panel has at least one layer of plastic with glass fiber reinforcements in view of Rohloff for sturdiness.
